An Act to Raise the Minimum Wage in Los Angeles

Bill number: HB-2026-117
Stage: Proposed, not enacted
Introduced: October 28, 2026
Sponsor: Committee on Labor and Wages
Applies to: every employer with employees whose work location is in Los Angeles
Status note: This bill has not passed. It may be amended or withdrawn before a vote.

NOTICE: Synthetic bill. Place names are real; wage rates, rules and dates are illustrative, not the actual law. This document was created for a software prototype. The Regional Assembly and the bill are fictional. It is not a real law, regulation or legal advice.

PURPOSE AND USE

This bill would raise the minimum wage that applies in Los Angeles. If it is enacted, the rule below takes effect on the effective date shown with it. Until then, the minimum wage in the current bulletin stays in force.

RULES

1.1 Minimum Wage

Jurisdiction: Los Angeles
Effective Date: July 1, 2027

Every employer shall pay each covered employee a wage of not less than $17.00 per hour for all hours worked.
